

Nebraska Territorial Rangers, Inc.

Assumption of Risk & Disclaimer

1. ABSOLUTELY NO LOADED GUNS ANYPLACE BUT THE FIRING LINE!!!!
2. Firearms are to be carried unloaded in a SAFE manner; revolvers in holsters; rifles and shotguns in scabbards or carried straight up with action opened.
3. THE "170 DEGREE RULE" MUST BE FOLLOWED: That is, no gun muzzle is to break the line described by the firing line or the front of the stage, violation will result in disqualification for that stage. A second violation will result in disqualification from the event.
4. Draws from a cross draw must be done with the body turned to the firing line so the muzzle of the gun is not breaking the 170° rule.
5. A dropped or knocked down empty firearm will result in a safety violation or a disqualification of the shooter for that stage.
6. A dropped or knocked down loaded firearm will result in a match disqualification.
7. The shooter's finger may not be in the trigger guard and the revolver may not be cocked before it is pointed down range:
1st infraction—disqualification from the stage; 2nd infraction—disqualification from the match.
8. Disqualifications are to be made only by the Posse Marshal, Stage Drivers, Judge, or Match Directors.
9. Ammunition dropped while loading during a timed stage must remain on the ground until the stage is completed.
10. NO JACKETED BULLETS--Only cast lead bullets allowed. No squib or magnum velocity loads.
11. Ammo reloads should be above 600 FPS and should NOT be loaded below powder manufacturer's load data.
12. EYE AND EAR PROTECTION IS MANDATORY in all "hot" areas--the firing line and surroundings.
13. No smoking at loading/unloading tables or firing line.
14. No alcohol allowed during shooting hours.
15. Shooters are responsible for the safe condition of their firearms and ammo.
16. No alibis. Guns and/or ammo malfunctions will be misses.
17. In case of an emergency, all firing will cease and guns must be put down pointed in a safe direction.
18. Any non shotgun round over the berm is an automatic Match DQ.
